

Complaint Handling Policy

At MyRepublic, we take your complaint seriously. If you are dissatisfied in any way, it's important we hear about it so we can work with you to address your complaint quickly, in an objective, fair and transparent way.

Anyone has a right to make a complaint about MyRepublic. We will work with you to try and resolve your complaint to your satisfaction.

How do I make a complaint?

If you have a dispute arising from how we have handled your initial request, or you are dissatisfied with a product or the customer service we have provided, you can request any staff member to lodge a complaint. Our staff are all trained on our complaints handling policy, including our obligations to you, how to recognise complaints, and importantly, how to resolve issues quickly.

You can contact us to make a complaint in the following ways:

Online	Feedback Form
Chat	Live Chat Support we are available 9am - 5pm Monday- Friday and 9aam-5pm on Saturday
Email	Submit a Request

What happens after you have submitted a complaint?

Once you have contacted us, we aim to answer your question or provide a suitable solution while you are on the phone or chatting to us. Our aim is to resolve all complaints on your first contact with us.

Acknowledgment of Complaint

We will acknowledge your complaint within 1 working day by your preferred contact method with a hope to come to an agreed resolution within 10 working days. However, there are times when it may take longer to investigate a complaint and if that is the case we will provide regular updates to you

Escalating a complaint

If at any point you are not satisfied with the way in which MyRepublic are handling your complaint, you can request for your complaint to be escalated to a manager through any contact channel.

Once your complaint has been escalated, we will provide you with a resolution plan within twenty business days. At this time, if you are still not satisfied with how your complaint is being handled, you may wish to discuss your complaint with the Telecommunication Dispute Resolution (TDR).

Resolving your complaint

We will not implement a proposed resolution plan to your complaint until we have discussed it with you, and you accept it.

Occasionally, resolution may take longer than 10 working days when there are factors outside of the direct control of MyRepublic. If a delay occurs, we will contact you, let you know the cause and provide you with a new time-frame.

After implementing the resolution steps we have agreed with you, we will confirm with you in writing that the complaint has been resolved.

If we are unable to make contact with you, we will write to you and request that you provide us with your updated mobile number so we can contact you.

Taking your complaint further

In the unlikely event that we cannot resolve your complaint to your satisfaction, or within the agreed time-frames, you then have the option to forward your complaint to the TDR. Please note that TDR will only accept cases where you have first tried to resolve your issue with us directly. The TDR scheme is a free service and you can find out more about the TDR at <https://www.tdr.org.nz/about-tdr>
